

Author Alerts

Summary: MVLC is delighted to announce the launch of Author Alerts, a new digital service offered through EngagedPatrons, that enables patrons to receive email or text message notifications when MVLC libraries acquire titles by their favorite authors.

Workflow – Subscribing to Author Alerts:

1. To begin, go to any MVLC member library’s website (or OPAC if that library has opted to have a button there) and find the Author Alerts button or sign-up page.

2. Click “Start Here”.

Get notified by email or text message when any member library of the Merrimack Valley Library Consortium orders new titles by your favorite authors or performers!

5. Click Continue.
6. Select all desired formats and click continue.

7. From here, create a first alert by typing the name of an author, actor, or director and clicking Continue.
  - If Author Alerts cannot find a match for the name entered, it will ask the user to check the spelling or give the option to add the name anyway.
8. Success! Author Alerts will confirm it has added an alert for that author and give the option to add additional information about that author.
  - Users can choose to skip this step and may check the box next to “Don’t ask again” if not planning to add author information to future alerts.

9. When a new item by the author(s) on a user’s list is added to any MVLC member library’s collection, all users subscribed to that author will get an email or text notification with the item information and a link to the catalog record to place a hold.
  - Notifications will come from the patrons’ home library and have the e-mail address: support@authoralerts.com.
  - If patrons do not receive alerts, ensure this email address is on their safe sender list.
  - Patrons can unsubscribe from Author Alerts at any time by clicking the link at the bottom of an email alert.
